MEDCHI LAUNCHES NEW PROGRAM TO OFFER MEMBERS HIGH-QUALITY PRODUCTS THROUGH HPX

BALTIMORE, May 17, 2023 – MedChi, The Maryland State Medical Society, is excited to announce the launch of its new affinity program, which will provide members with access to a wide range of high-quality products and services through Health Care Professionals Exchange (HPX).

As part of this new program, MedChi members will be able to take advantage of a robust and growing catalogue of products, including personal protective equipment (PPE), durable medical equipment, biologics, and more. This program is designed to provide association members with access to the best products at the most competitive prices available.

As a leading provider of healthcare products and services, HPX is dedicated to the expansion of its catalogue of products based on customer feedback. As a result of this new collaboration with HPX, MedChi members will now have access to a broad range of products in the healthcare industry.

The e-commerce store will be continually updated to meet the evolving needs of MedChi members. Members can browse the online catalogue, compare prices, and make purchases.

“We are pleased to offer our members access to this new affinity program,” said Gene Ransom, CEO of MedChi. “Our members are dedicated healthcare professionals who work tirelessly to improve the health and well-being of Maryland residents. This program is just one more way we can support our members and provide them with the resources they need to do their jobs effectively.”

“We are excited to collaborate with MedChi and provide its members with access to our products,” said Archie Lamb, CEO of HPX. “Our company is committed to delivering the highest-quality products at the best prices possible, and we look forward to working with MedChi to meet their members’ healthcare needs.”
