

Examples of Written DISCLOSURE:

The ACCME requires in Standard 6:

Relevant financial relationships of those with control over CME content

6.1 An individual must disclose to learners any relevant financial relationship(s), to include the following information:

- The name of the individual;
- The name of the commercial interest(s);
- The nature of the relationship the person has with each commercial interest.

6.2 For an individual with no relevant financial relationship(s) the learners must be informed that no relevant financial relationship(s) exist.

MedChi requires that learners be informed of this in writing.

Example 1:

The following presenters and planners reported that they have no relationships with commercial organizations to disclose:

- C. Box, D.O.
- I. Phone, M.D.
- Q. Tape, M.D., M.P.H.
- A. Cup

The following presenters and planners reported that they have financial interest(s)/arrangement(s) with one or more medical commercial organization(s) that may be pertinent to the subject being presented:

- F. Folder, M.D.: Watson Pharmaceuticals (grant/research support)
- L. Desk, D.O.: Eli Lilly (consultant), Wyeth (speaker's bureau). Dr. Desk will be discussing "Off-Label" uses and is required to disclose and identify such uses to the participants during her presentation.

Example 2:

Dr. Folder is a recipient of research grants from Watson Pharmaceuticals. The following committee members and staff have nothing to disclose in regard to affiliations with, or financial interests in, any organization that may have an interest in any part of this article: P. Stamp, M.D., R. Monitor, M.D. and C. Picture.

Example 3:
