MEDCHI TO HOST 2026 SPRING HOUSE OF DELEGATES MEETING VIA ZOOM ON APRIL 26

BALTIMORE, April 16, 2026 — MedChi, The Maryland State Medical Society, will continue its commitment to advancing physician-led advocacy and strengthening Maryland's health care system during its upcoming Spring House of Delegates Meeting, to be held virtually via Zoom on Sunday, April 26, from 7:30 to 11:00 a.m.

The annual Spring HOD meeting convenes physician leaders from across the state to engage in meaningful dialogue, shape policy, and address the most pressing issues impacting patient care and the practice of medicine in Maryland.

This year's program will feature a legislative panel at 8:00 a.m. with Senator Clarence Lam, M.D., Delegate Terri Hill, M.D., and Gene Ransom, CEO of MedChi as speakers. The panel will be moderated by Eric Wargotz, M.D., FCAP, MedChi's 178th President. The House of Delegates will formally convene at 9:00 a.m.

"MedChi's House of Delegates provides a vital forum for physicians to come together, share insights, and lead the conversation on policies that directly impact patient care," said Dr. Wargotz. "We look forward to another engaging and productive session."

Resolutions on direct primary care and federal cuts will also be considered and discussed at this meeting as well as a looking ahead report. Gene Ransom, MedChi CEO, states "Attending the upcoming House of Delegates meeting is a great way to be involved with current healthcare issues and with MedChi. We encourage all Maryland physicians to attend."

Registration and the full agenda and business of the House of Delegates can be found on MedChi's website, www.medchi.org/hod.
