MEDCHI TO HOST WOMENS SYMPOSIUM TO CELEBRATE WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

BALTIMORE, February 27, 2025 — Since 1995, the month of March has been designated as "Women's History Month." The theme for Women's History Month for 2025 is "Moving Forward Together! Women Educating & Inspiring Generations." MedChi, along with The History of Medicine, is using this month to celebrate the collective strength and influence of women who have dedicated their lives to education, mentorship, and leadership.

The event will take place on Saturday, March 1, from 9:30 to 12:30 at the MedChi office in Baltimore. We are excited to have a panel of women in medicine and women at MedChi presenting. Dr. Anne Banfield, an OB/GYN, will be sharing her experiences in reproductive health in the current political climate. Nicole Diehlmann, an Architectural Historian, will be speaking on her research on suffragism at MedChi in the early 1900's. Meg Fairfax Fielding, History of Women in Medicine, will also be joining us to discuss the early years of women in medicine and their membership at MedChi.

There will be on-site parking, and there is on-street parking and public transportation in the immediate vicinity. Tickets are $10 per person and will benefit the preservation of MedChi's archives.
