MEDCHI, THE MARYLAND STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY, PRESENTS DELEGATE CHRIS ADAMS WITH AWARD

BALTIMORE, July 18, 2022 – MedChi, The Maryland State Medical Society, is excited to announce their 2021 legislative awards winners.

Delegate Chris Adams, who represents District 37B (Caroline, Dorchester, Talbot, and Wicomico Counties) in the Maryland House of Delegates, was awarded a Legislative Award for his tireless commitment to removing bureaucratic obstacles for private practice physicians, thereby benefitting patient outcomes and improving the overall public health of Maryland.

Delegate Adams has served as a member of the Maryland House of Delegates since January 14, 2015, representing District 37B. He served as the House minority whip in 2021.

His past House Service includes Property and Casualty Insurance of the Economic Matter Committee, 2015-2019; Legislative Policy Committee, 2021; Rules and Executive Nominations Committee, 2021. Recently his work on healthcare legislation included co-sponsoring a bill that increases penalties for those who possess or distribute controlled substances, such as fentanyl.

MedChi CEO Gene Ransom would like to congratulate Delegate Adams and thank him for his commitment to the private practice of medicine and patient rights. He went on to add that “Delegate Adams has been a great partner for MedChi in Annapolis.”
