MEDCHI, THE MARYLAND STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY, PRESENTS DELEGATE REZNIK WITH AWARD

BALTIMORE, November 8, 2017—MedChi, The Maryland State Medical Society, recognized several individuals at their recent Fall House of Delegates Meeting.

Delegate Kirill Reznik, who represents District 39 in Montgomery County, was awarded a Legislative Award for his advocacy on behalf of Maryland's most vulnerable patients through his efforts to protect Medicaid funding and access.

Delegate Reznik serves as Chairman of the Health and Human Resources Subcommittee on the Appropriations Committee, where he leads the effort to craft and approve the State budget for the Departments of Health and Mental Hygiene, Human Resources, Housing and Community Development, Disabilities, and Aging, as well as the Maryland Health Benefit Exchange, Commission on Civil Rights, Office for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing, and the Maryland Institute of Emergency Medical Services System.

Gene Ransom, MedChi CEO, would like to congratulate Delegate Kirill Reznik and thank him for his hard work protecting the poor and vulnerable in the Medicaid program.
