

The Maryland State Medical Society

News: For Immediate Release

Additional Information Contact:

Gene M. Ransom, CEO

Office: 410-539-0872 x 3305

MEDCHI SWEARS IN NEW PRESIDENT AT HOUSE OF DELEGATES MEETING

Benjamin Z. Stallings II, M.D., of Prince George's County, becomes MedChi's 171st President

BALTIMORE, October 5, 2018 — MedChi, The Maryland State Medical Society, installed their new President on September 22nd at the Fall House of Delegates Meeting. Benjamin Z. Stallings II, M.D., is the Society's 171st President.

Dr. Stallings grew up in Virginia and received his Bachelor of Science in Biology from Virginia Tech. He received his medical degree from the Medical College of Virginia and has been a Radiologist in Prince George's County for 25 years.

Dr. Stallings serves as the Director of the Department of Imaging and the Chief Radiation Safety Office at Doctors Community Hospital; he is also the President and CEO of Diagnostic Imaging and Diagnostic Imaging Associates.

Dr. Stallings is an active member of the Maryland Radiologic Society, the Radiologic Society of North America, the American College of Radiology, and the American Medical Association. In addition to serving as President-elect of MedChi, Dr. Stallings previously held the position of Prince George's County Trustee from 2010 – 2013 and Secretary and Vice Speaker from 2015 – Present. He also served as President of the Prince George's County Medical Society from 2009 to 2010.

Dr. Stallings is married to Kimberly Stallings, and together they have four sons. Benjamin Stallings III is finishing his Biochemistry degree at Virginia Tech; Brandon Stallings is majoring in business at Towson University; Bryant Stallings is also majoring in business at Towson University; and Blake Stallings is in the 10th grader at Paint Branch High School. Virtually every second of Dr. Stallings' free time is spent coaching travel basketball for TEAM TAKEOVER. He has coached top-level basketball for over 10 years. He is currently coaching his youngest son's team.

About MedChi

MedChi, The Maryland State Medical Society is a non-profit membership association of Maryland physicians. It is the largest physician organization in Maryland. The mission of MedChi is to serve as Maryland's foremost advocate and resource for physicians, their patients and the public health of Maryland. For more information, please visit www.medchi.org.